3. Transport

If you arrive at Liszt Ferenc International Airport

By public transport

Passengers are taken by a direct bus service, either by Bus No. 100E or No. 200E, from Liszt Ferenc International Airport.

- 1) In case of choosing Bus No. 100E, it takes approximately 37 minutes (3 stops) to arrive at Deák Ferenc Square. You may reach the venue on foot in approximately 6 minutes from Deák Ferenc Square. You may also choose to take the yellow metro line (M1) from Deák Ferenc Square, in which case you must travel 1 stop to Vörösmarty Square. The M1 line in fact constitutes the continent's oldest Millennium Underground Railway.
- 2) In case of choosing Bus No. 200E, after a 20-minute-ride (11 stops) you will arrive at the Kőbánya-Kispest metro terminal. It is thereafter possible to travel to Deák Ferenc Square (10 stops) via the blue metro line (M3), from which, as mentioned above, it takes 6 minutes on foot or 1 stop via the yellow metro line (M1) to travel to the venue.

Please note that one-way public transportation tickets in Budapest are only valid for one journey: should you choose to change public transportation lines, you will be required to stamp another ticket. A single (one-way) ticket costs 350 HUF. An airport shuttle bus single ticket to take bus No. 100E from the airport into the city (or vice-versa) costs 900 HUF. This ticket can also be purchased from the bus driver on board by cash. In order to get around in Budapest, we recommend using the application “BKK Futár”, which may be downloaded to your smartphone, tablet, or accessed through your browser at www.futar.bkk.hu (an English version is also available).

By taxi

The official taxi company at the airport is Főtaxi. All cars are equipped with POS terminals, therefore passengers have the option to pay with credit cards and debit cards as well. Taxis may be hailed in person at Főtaxi booths located at the airport. Tel.: (+36 1) 222 2 222

Please note that there are several other trusted taxi companies available in Budapest, for example:

Budapest Taxi: (+36 1) 777 7 777

City Taxi: (+36 1) 211 1 111

All taxis operating in Budapest charge the same fixed rate. The cost of a taxi ride from the airport to Vörösmarty Square is estimated to be about 7,500 HUF (25 EUR).

By Airport Shuttle Service

The Airport Shuttle Service provides door-to-door transfer between the airport and any location in Budapest and its fleet operates 24 hours a day. The transfer operates as a shared-ride service, which means that passengers travelling to the airport from the same or closely situated addresses are taken in the same vehicle. The Airport Shuttle Desks may be found at the airport terminals. All shuttles arrive to and depart from the main entrances of the terminals at the airport.

Reservations can be made in person at the Airport Shuttle Desks or 24 hours before your flight departure via an online reservation system (www.airportshuttle.hu), through travel agencies, or by calling the company's call centre by dialling the number (+36 1) 296 8 555.

If you arrive by train

There are three main train terminals in Budapest: Keleti pályaudvar (the Eastern Station), Déli pályaudvar (the Southern Station) and Nyugati pályaudvar (the Western Station). All three terminals have their own respective metro line connections. The following lines are may be used to arrive at the stations: the first two (Keleti and Déli) are located along the red metro line (M2). Nyugati pályaudvar (the Western Station) is accessible via the blue metro line (M3).

Arriving to Deák Ferenc Square by metro:

- 3 stops from Keleti (by M2)
- 4 stops from Déli (by M2)

- 2 stops from Nyugati (by M3)

As mentioned above, from Deák Ferenc Square it is possible to reach the venue in 6 minutes by foot or by the yellow metro line (M1), in which case it only takes 1 stop.

Tickets in Budapest are only valid for one ride, so if you change metro lines, you need to punch another ticket. A single (one-way) ticket costs 350 HUF.

Parking
